

As a private citizen, I strongly endorse the "Do Not Call" list being continued. The various companies making phone calls to private homes to make unwanted solicitations as to their business during the evening hours was very annoying. Some entities would not take "I am not interested" as "closure" to the unwanted call. A private citizen has to resort to obtain an unlisted phone number in order to stop the unwanted calls.